WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

1 Head coach Michael Locksley is set to begin his first season full time at the helm of the Maryland football program. Born and raised in the DMV, Locksley returns home with over 20 years of coaching experience, including 10 years with the Terps. The 2018 Broyles Award Winner, given to the nation's top assistant coach, Locksley has spent the previous three years at Alabama, where he won the 2017 College Football Playoff National Championship.

4 Redshirt sophomore Anthony McFarland became the first freshman in Maryland history to record four 100-yard rushing games last season, including back to back 200 yard games against Indiana (210) and Ohio State (298). McFarland also had 100-yard games against Temple (9/15) and Minnesota (9/22) and finished the season with the most rushing yards (1,034) by a freshman in program history.

18 Maryland recorded 18 interceptions last season, its most since the 2010 season and the fifth highest mark in the country and second best in the Big Ten, trailing only Iowa, who had 20. The Terps had at least one interception in every game of the season up until the finale at Penn State, one of only two teams (Utah State) to have an interception in 11 of 12 games.

75.3 Maryland will return 75.3 percent of its total offense for the 2019 season, bringing back players that produced 3,360 of the team's 4,457 yards from 2018, as well as athletes that scored 30 of the Terps 38 offensive touchdowns.

93 Maryland converted on 93 percent of their red zone opportunities last season (29-31), the fourth best mark in the country and the best in the Big Ten. The Terps converted on their first 26 trips of the season, before finally getting stopped in the 11th game of the year against Ohio State. The Terps scored touchdowns on 19 of the 31 trips to the red zone while kicking field goals on the other 10.

3,350 The powerful Maryland running back corps returns five tailbacks who have combined for 3,350 yards thus far in their careers. Led by Anthony McFarland Jr. who starred as a freshman in 2018 with 1,034 yards, Lorenzo Harrison (1,339), Javon Leake (374), Tayon-Fleet Davis (324) and Jake Funk (279) will all contribute.

2018 BY THE NUMBERS

1

Last season, junior running back Javon Leake became the first ever player in Big Ten history to win both the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week and Special Teams Player of the Week in the same week after his performance against Illinois. Leake totaled four touchdowns (three rushing, one kickoff) and 274 all-purpose yards against Illinois (10/27), the first Terp with four touchdowns in a game since DJ Adams reached the end zone four times in the 2010 Military Bowl.

3

With both a rushing and receiving touchdown against Texas and Illinois last season, sophomore wide receiver Jeshaun Jones became the first Big Ten freshman to have two games with a touchdown catch and touchdown run since Ohio State's Maurice Clarett in 2003. With five receiving touchdowns last season, Jones tallied the most by a Maryland freshman since Stefon Diggs in 2012.

9

Maryland last season forced nine more turnovers than it lost, the best mark in the Big Ten and 15th best in the country. The Terps caused 23 turnovers (18 interceptions, five fumbles) while only coughing the ball up nine times. Maryland won or tied the turnover battle in 10 of the 12 games.

17

S Darnell Savage Jr. was drafted 21st overall by the Green Bay Packers in the NFL Draft this past April, making him the 17th player in program history to be selected in the first round.

28

Maryland will welcome 28 newcomers to the fold in 2019, 23 freshmen and five transfers.

85.7

True freshman placekicker Joseph Petrino converted on 85.7 of his kicks last season (12-for-14), the highest percentage in the Big Ten. Petrino was true on his first 11 field goal attempts of the season and was the last kicker in the country to not miss a field goal. Adding in his 40 extra points, Petrino accounted for 76 points.

200

Redshirt sophomore Anthony McFarland rewrote the Maryland record book during two consecutive weeks against Indiana and #9 Ohio State last season, recording back-to-back 200-yard rushing games, the first time a Terp has done that since 1979 (Charlie Wysocki). Both his 298 yard performance against Ohio State and 210 yard game against Indiana were the most ever in a single game by a freshman. The 298 yards vs. the Buckeyes were the second most rushing yards ever in a single game by a Terp, trailing only LaMont Jordan's 306 yard performance in 1999.

MICHAEL LOCKSLEY

Head Coach

Towson '92 • 11th Year at Maryland, 1st as Head Coach

Michael Locksley returned home to become the University of Maryland's 37th head football coach in December 2018. Locksley, a Washington, D.C. native with deep personal and professional connections to the area, brings over 20 years of coaching experience, including two separate stints at Maryland, totalling 10 years with the Terps.

The winner of the 2018 Broyles Award, given to the nation's top assistant coach, Locksley has spent the last three years working under Nick Saban at the University of Alabama. He served as the Crimson Tide's co-offensive coordinator and won a national championship last season before being promoted to offensive coordinator in February of 2018 and helping Alabama return to the College Football Playoff.

Locksley, known for strong recruiting skills, was listed as a top-25 recruiter in the nation three different times (2003, 2005, 2006) and was a finalist for 2007 recruiter of the year by Rivals.com. He also engineered top-10 recruiting classes during each of his two seasons (2003-04) as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Florida.

Locksley has signed 21 four or five star recruits over his coaching career (according to 247sports), 14 of which came from the DMV area, in addition to coaching 92 NFL Draft selections. Among Locksley's successful signings to Maryland were future NFL stars Vernon Davis, Shawne Merriman, LaMont Jordan, D'Qwell Jackson, EJ Henderson, Yannick Ngakoue and Stefon Diggs.

Alabama's Locksley-led offense is averaging 47.9 points and 527.6 yards per game in 2018. The Tide has already set school records for points scored (623), single-season total offense (6,859 yards) and passing yards (4,231) in a season. Alabama quarterback Tua Tagovailoa has thrown for 3,189 yards and a school-record 37 touchdowns in 2018.

In 2017, Locksley coached the Alabama wide receivers, who combined to catch 128 passes for 2,059 yards and 19 touchdowns led by First Team All-SEC selection Calvin Ridley. Ridley hauled in 63 passes for 967 yards and five touchdowns in his junior season. Locksley spent the 2016 season on the Crimson Tide's staff as an offensive analyst.

Prior to Alabama, Locksley served as Maryland's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2012-15. He was named the Terps interim head coach for the final six games of the 2015 season.

During his time as Maryland's offensive coordinator, the Terrapins produced balanced and effective results. Locksley's attack was led by quarterback C.J. Brown, who became Maryland's all-time leader in touchdowns responsible (58) after totaling 13 passing touchdowns and eight rushing touchdowns in 2014. Locksley also mentored wide receiver, Stefon Diggs, who hauled in 62 passes for 792 yards and five touchdowns en route to second team All-Big Ten honors. Diggs is now an NFL superstar for the Minnesota Vikings.

In 2013, Locksley guided an offense that eclipsed 5,000 yards (5,160) for only the fourth time in program history and the first time since 2003. The passing game excelled that season, totaling 3,231 yards for the third-highest total in school history.

Prior to Maryland, Locksley served as the head coach at the University of New Mexico from 2009-11. Before that, Locksley also served as the offensive coordinator at the University of Illinois from 2005-08. The Illini went from No. 72 nationally in total offense in 2005 to 19th following the 2008 season. They led the Big Ten in rushing in 2006 and 2007 and then led the league in passing in 2008. The rushing attack was twice ranked in the top-10 nationally (No. 10 in 2006 and No. 5 in 2007).

Under Locksley's offensive plan, wide receiver Arrelious Benn was a first team all-conference pick as a sophomore in 2008 after leading the league in receiving yards (1,055). He went on to become a second-round pick of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 2010 NFL Draft.

The 2007 Illinois offense became just the third unit in school history to surpass the 5,000-yard mark and first to top 3,000 rushing yards. Led by Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year Rashard Mendenhall, the Illini led the league in rushing for the second straight year and finished fifth nationally at 256.7 yards a game.

Illinois played USC in the 2008 Rose Bowl and finished the season ranked 18th in the nation in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' poll and 20th by the Associated Press following a 9-4 season. In 2006, Locksley led an Illinois offense that paced the Big Ten and ranked 10th in the nation in rushing, averaging 188.8 yards.

Locksley spent the 2003 and 2004 seasons at the University of Florida as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator. In 2004, Gators' running back Ciatrick Fason led the SEC and ranked 19th in the NCAA in rushing (105.6 yards a game) on his way to second-team all-league honors.

In his first stint at Maryland from 1997-2002, Locksley enjoyed success both recruiting and grooming players in College Park. He oversaw the running backs during his entire tenure, including the final five as recruiting coordinator. Three different running backs - Chris Downs, Bruce Perry and LaMont Jordan - gained more than 1,000 yards and were named First Team All-Atlantic Coast Conference.

He began his coaching career at Towson in 1992, where he coached defensive backs and special teams, followed by two seasons at the U.S. Naval Academy Preparatory School. He coached outside linebackers at the University of the Pacific in 1995 and then coached wide receivers and tight ends at Army in 1996.

Locksley played safety at Towson University, where he was the team's defensive MVP as a senior in 1991. He finished his career ranked 19th on the school's all-time tackles list and graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing.

Locksley and his wife, Kia, have four children: Mike Jr., Kai, Kori and the late Meiko.

JON HOKE

Defensive Coordinator/Safeties

Ball State '80 • First Year at Maryland

Jon Hoke was hired as Maryland's Defensive Coordinator and Safeties Coach in January 2019. Hoke comes to College Park with countless years of professional and collegiate coaching experience, spending 16 years on defensive staffs in the NFL and 21 years in college football.

For the past three years, Hoke served as the defensive backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he oversaw a secondary that was led by veteran cornerback Brent Grimes.

In 2018, third year safety Andrew Adams was near the top of the NFL leaders in interceptions with four, while six different Buccaneers tallied a pick. The year prior, Grimes led the team with 11 passes defensed and tied for the team lead in interceptions, with three.

Hoke also helped oversee the development of rookie safety Justin Evans, who tied for the team lead with three interceptions, tied for the third-most among NFL rookies. Evans started the final 11 games he played in the season. Free agent cornerback Robert McClain tallied three interceptions, including one returned for a touchdown, while safety Chris Conte notched a career-high three forced fumbles.

In Hoke's first season with Tampa Bay (2016), he helped coach a secondary that was responsible for 14 of the Buccaneers' 17 interceptions on the season. Grimes, who was named a Pro Bowl alternate in his first season with Tampa Bay, tied for the team lead in interceptions, with four, while leading the NFL in passes defensed, with 24. Tampa Bay's three safeties (Chris Conte, Bradley McDougald and Keith Tandy) combined for 207 tackles, 23 passes defensed and eight interceptions. Hoke also assisted in the development of rookie cornerback Vernon Hargreaves III, who started all 16 games for the Buccaneers, recording nine passes defensed and one interception.

Hoke joined Tampa Bay after spending 2015 as the South Carolina co-defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach. Before returning to the college ranks, Hoke spent six seasons on the Chicago Bears' coaching staff (2009-14), working as the teams' defensive backs coach.

Under Hoke's tutelage, cornerbacks Tim Jennings and Charles Tillman earned four Pro Bowl selections, with Tillman being named first-team All-Pro (2012) and Jennings being named second-team All-Pro (2012). During Hoke's six seasons, Chicago tied for the fourth-most interceptions in the NFL (111) and led the NFL in interceptions returned for touchdowns, with 20.

In 2012, Tillman and Jennings were both named Pro Bowl starters, the first cornerback tandem to do so since 1988 (Hanford Dixon and Frank Minnifield, Cleveland Browns). Jennings led the NFL with nine interceptions, tied for the second-most in Bears history, while Tillman led the NFL with a career-best 10 forced fumbles. Hoke also helped guide safety Chris Harris to a second-team All-Pro selection (2010).

Prior to his time in Chicago, Hoke worked as the Houston Texans' defensive backs coach for seven seasons (2002-08), his first NFL coaching experience. During his time with the Texans, defensive backs accounted for 82.8 percent (72 of 87) of the teams' interceptions.

Hoke began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Dayton in the fall of 1982. He spent the spring of 1983 as a graduate assistant at North Carolina State before securing his first full time position at Bowling Green in 1983 as the Falcons' secondary/special teams coach. He spent four seasons in Bowling Green before taking a position as the defensive backs/special teams coach at San Diego State from 1987-88. He spent the next five years as the defensive backs coach at Kent State (1989-93), adding the title of defensive coordinator in his final season with the Golden Flashes. He mentored the defensive backs at Missouri for five seasons from 1994-98 before joining the University of Florida staff in Gainesville in 1999.

Hoke spent three seasons (1999-2001) at Florida as the Gators' defensive coordinator/secondary coach, adding the title of assistant head coach in his final two years. In his last season with the Gators, Florida's defense ranked first in the SEC in total defense, scoring defense, and pass efficiency defense, and was second in rushing defense.

A four-year letterman at Ball State (1976-79), Hoke garnered all-MAC honors as a defensive back. During his playing career, the Cardinals earned league titles in both 1976 and 1978. He earned a bachelor's degree in 1980, with a double major in physical education and history. Hoke logged a brief stint in the NFL as a player, seeing action in 11 games for the Chicago Bears in 1980, recording seven tackles.

A native of Kettering, Ohio, Hoke and his wife, Jody, have four children: Mallory, Kyle and twins Kendall and Carly. His younger brother, Brady, is the former head coach at Michigan and most recently served as the defensive line coach with the Carolina Panthers.

SCOTTIE MONTGOMERY

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Duke '00 • First Year at Maryland

Scottie Montgomery joined Michael Locksley's staff as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in January 2019. Montgomery arrived in College Park after serving as Head Coach at East Carolina University from 2015-18. He's also played an integral role leading Duke University and the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers to divisional championships and postseason play.

Montgomery had an instant impact once taking over at East Carolina. He directed the Pirates to their second-highest single-season passing attack in school history during the 2016 season, as ECU averaged 334.7 air yards per game. Additionally, ECU generated 5,605 yards of offense (467.1 ypg), which stood as the fourth-highest seasonal total in the program's record books.

The Pirates ranked among the nation's Top 25 (of 128 FBS programs) in 11 different statistical categories in 2016, rating 6th in passing offense, 11th in completion percentage, 16th in fewest penalties, 18th in fewest penalty yards, 19th in defensive fourth down conversion percentage, 22nd in offensive fourth down conversion percentage, 23rd in total offense, 23rd in blocked kicks, 23rd in blocked punts, 23rd in fewest penalty yards per game average and 24th in fewest penalties per game average.

From an individual standpoint, Montgomery helped Biletnikoff Award finalist Zay Jones capture FBS stat titles in receptions (158), receptions per game (13.2), receiving yards per game (145.5), while ranking 2nd in receiving yards (1,746) on the way to establishing NCAA career (399) and single-season standards in receptions. First-year ECU quarterback Philip Nelson also finished 7th in completion percentage (67.9) and 10th in completions per game (23.7).

During his second season in 2017, the Pirates' passing game again turned in impressive numbers by ranking fifth in program history with a 3,815-yard total (317.9 ypg). At the national level, ECU's air numbers stood 12th among all FBS programs, while from a ball security standpoint, Montgomery's unit led the American Athletic Conference and rated 12th in the country with only five fumbles lost all season.

Three players - receivers Trevon Brown and Davon Grayson, along with defensive end Kiante Anderson - earned All-AAC honors during the 2017 campaign under his leadership.

Away from the field, Montgomery is an oft-requested speaker who most recently was invited to serve as a panelist during the Knight Commission's May 1, 2017 meeting at the National Press Club in Washington, D.C. He participated in a discussion which assessed leadership diversity in Division I athletics, particularly in the sport of football.

Prior to taking over the ECU football program, Montgomery had a two-year tenure as the Blue Devils' associate head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Overall, Montgomery served on the Duke staff for seven seasons under head coaches Ted Roof (2006-07) and David Cutcliffe (2008-09, 2013-15) - five as receivers coach. He helped guide Duke to three-straight bowl appearances, including a 44-41 overtime victory against Indiana in the 2015 New Era Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium.

Montgomery's coaching experience in the National Football League spanned three seasons under Mike Tomlin's leadership. His work with the Steelers' receivers in 2010, 2011 and 2012 resulted in two playoff appearances, the 2010 AFC North Division championship and a spot in Super Bowl XLV.

The 2015 campaign marked Montgomery's second as both primary offensive play-caller and quarterbacks coach at Duke, a program in which he starred as an All-Atlantic Coast Conference wide receiver from 1996 to 1999. Tasked with grooming new starting quarterback Thomas Sirk following the graduation of the school's all-time winningest signal-caller and All-ACC selection Anthony Boone, Montgomery encouraged balance to a unit that continued to display a consistent level of production.

Montgomery was recognized for his efforts as a one of three finalists for the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) National Assistant Coach-of-the-Year Award in 2015. In addition, he was listed by Athlon as one of "College Football's 20 Best Coaches Under 40" - ranking among the top 13 coordinators in the country.

During his first year as offensive coordinator in 2014, Montgomery had oversight of an attack that tallied 421 points, the second-highest single-season total in program history. Only the 2013 squad, which Montgomery served as Duke's wide receivers coach, owns a better point total. In addition to a 32.4 scoring average, the Blue Devil offense also racked up 5,178 yards of total offense on the way to a 9-4 overall record and an appearance in the Hyundai Sun Bowl.

Over Montgomery's two-year stint as Duke's offensive coordinator, the Blue Devils featured two All-America selections along the offensive line (guard Laken Tomlinson in 2014, center Matt Skura in 2015), the ACC's all-time leader in pass receptions (Jamison Crowder) and record-setting running back Shaun Wilson, who finished the 2014 season with the highest yards per rushing attempt average (7.67) in school history. In the 2015 NFL Draft, Tomlinson was selected in the first round by the Detroit Lions while Crowder was a fourth-round choice of the Washington Redskins.

In 2013, Montgomery guided a Duke receiving unit that included Crowder, a first-team All-ACC pick, who set a conference single-season record with 108 pass receptions for 1,330 yards and eight touchdowns. The Blue Devils rolled to a 10-4 mark and captured the ACC's Coastal Division championship with a 6-2 ledger before falling to Texas A&M in a 52-48 shootout at the Chick-fil-A Bowl. Duke stood 22nd and 23rd in the final USA Today/Coaches and Associated Press polls, respectively, while ranking 24th in the last BCS listing.

Montgomery helped the Steelers to a three-year regular season record of 32-16, mentoring receivers such Hines Ward, Mike Wallace and Antonio Brown. A four-time NFL Pro Bowl selection, Ward finished his career as the organization's all-time leader in receptions (1,000), receiving yardage (12,083) and receiving touchdowns (85). Wallace earned a Pro Bowl bid in 2011 after catching 72 passes for 1,193 yards and eight touchdowns while Brown was the Steelers' team MVP in 2011 after becoming the first player in NFL history to amass 1,000-plus yards both receiving and on kick returns.

During his earlier four-year coaching stay at Duke, Montgomery directed several of the finest pass-catchers in school and ACC history in Eron Riley, Donovan Varner and Conner Vernon.

As a wide receiver for the Blue Devils from 1996 to 1999, Montgomery paced Duke in receiving three-straight seasons as a sophomore, junior and senior, and was a two-time team MVP selection in 1998 and 1999.

Montgomery closed his collegiate career with 171 catches for 2,379 yards and 13 touchdowns, which includes a career-high 60 receptions as a junior in 1998. On special teams, he finished his career ranking among Duke's all-time leaders in kickoff returns (63), kickoff return yards (1,515) and all-purpose yardage (4,188).

During his senior campaign in 1999, Montgomery established the school standard for all-purpose yards in a season with 1,565.

ELIJAH BROOKS

Running Backs

William & Mary '07 • First Year at Maryland

Elijah Brooks, who has spent the last eight years molding some of the nation's best players for future success in the collegiate and professional ranks as the head coach of local powerhouse DeMatha Catholic High School, has joined the Maryland coaching staff in January 2019.

Brooks will join Locksley's staff as the running backs coach. Brooks coached current Maryland running back Anthony McFarland Jr., who broke the program's freshman rushing records this past season with 1,034 yards and four touchdowns, in high school.

In addition to McFarland, Brooks also coached current Maryland running back Lorenzo Harrison III, offensive lineman Terrance Davis, defensive back Tino Ellis, defensive lineman Austin Fontaine, offensive lineman Evan Gregory, offensive lineman Marcus Minor, defensive lineman Oluwaseun Oluwatimi and wide receivers Chris Jones and DJ Turner at DeMatha.

Under Brooks, a number of Stags have gone on to the NFL, including linebacker Cameron Wake, safety Rodney McLeoud and offensive linemen Arie and Cyrus Kouandijo. As head coach at DeMatha, Brooks won four consecutive Washington Catholic Athletic Conference championships from 2014-17, posting a 72-20 record during that span. Before his stint as head coach, Brooks served as the running backs coach from 2007-11.

Brooks starred as a running back in college, racking up 3,025 rushing yards and 549 receiving yards at Kent State and William & Mary.

DELBERT COWSETTE

Defensive Line

Maryland '00 • First Year at Maryland

Maryland standout and All-ACC performer, Delbert Cowsette returns to his alma mater in 2019 to coach the Terrapin's defensive line.

Cowsette, who also played in the NFL, has spent the past five seasons at the University of Albany.

Under Cowsette's guidance, the Great Danes produced 20 sacks in 2018 and 24 sacks in 2017. UAlbany held opponents to 107.0 rushing yards per game in 2017 as defensive end Malachi Hoskins earned First-Team All-CAA honors after totaling nine sacks and five tackles for a loss.

In 2016, Cowsette's line helped UAlbany earn 24 sacks and have the No. 2 scoring defense in the CAA at 18.8 points allowed a game. Hoskins earned Second Team All-CAA honors with seven sacks, 11 tackles for loss and 82 total tackles.

In his first season, the UAlbany defense led the nation in turnover margin (1.25) as well as fumble recoveries (20) under Cowsette's watch.

Cowsette came to UAlbany after two stints at Hampton University where he served as the defensive line coach, defensive coordinator, and recruiting coordinator.

In 2010, Cowsette tutored two All-Americans on the defensive end: Kenrick Ellis and Brandon Peguese, who helped the Pirate defense finish in the top three nationally in total defense. The Pirate defense also finished No. 1 in red zone stops.

Cowsette then returned to Hampton for the 2012 and 2013 seasons where he served as the pro liaison for NFL scouts, as well as developed an all-conference defensive end.

Cowsette was a four-year standout at Maryland (1996-99) where he was team captain his senior year while earning First Team All-ACC honors. He currently ranks 12th all-time at Maryland with 31 tackles for loss and in 1999 he tied for the team lead with six sacks.

Cowsette was drafted by the Washington Redskins and played for the New York Giants, Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Chicago Bears from 2000-06.

Cowsette began his coaching career in 2007 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Terrapins, before moving on to become an assistant defensive line coach in 2008-09.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Cowsette is married to Alena Cowsette. They have three children.

MIKE MILLER

Tight Ends

Alabama Birmingham '15 • First Year at Maryland

Mike Miller was named as Maryland's Tight Ends Coach in January 2019.

Miller spent the past two seasons as Michael Locksley's offensive graduate assistant at the University of Alabama. He worked primarily with the Crimson Tide quarterbacks and wide receivers.

In 2018, Alabama's offense set school records for points scored (684), single-season total offense (7,830 yards) and passing yards (4,854) in a season.

Miller, who served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Charlotte Christian (N.C.) High School in 2016, worked as a student assistant coach at Clemson when the Tigers reached the national title game during the 2015 season.

Miller was a quarterback at the University of Alabama-Birmingham during the 2011 and 2012 seasons.

JOHN PAPUCHIS

Special Teams/Inside Linebackers

Virginia Tech '01 • First Year at Maryland

John Papuchis, former defensive coordinator at Nebraska and UNC, joined the Maryland coaching staff as the Special Teams Coordinator and Inside Linebackers Coach in January 2019. Over the past 12 seasons, Papuchis has coached in one national championship game (2007) and six conference title games.

Papuchis (pronounced puh-POO-chis), a Gaithersburg, Maryland native who graduated from Quince Orchard High School, arrives at Maryland after spending four seasons (2015-18) at UNC. After coaching linebackers for two seasons, Papuchis was promoted to the Tar Heels defensive coordinator in 2017.

During Papuchis' four seasons at UNC, the Tar Heels won 24 games, including 19 in 2015-16, the programs most in back-to-back seasons since 1996 and 1997. In his first season as defensive coordinator in 2017, Papuchis had a pair of defensive standouts selected in the NFL Draft in M.J. Stewart (second round, Tampa Bay) and Andre Smith (seventh, Carolina). Stewart ended his career with 41 career pass breakups, a school record.

In 2016, UNC defense led the ACC and was 12th in the country in passing yards allowed. The Tar Heels allowed the fewest touchdown passes in the ACC and allowed the fewest touchdown receptions by wide receivers in the country.

Papuchis had an immediate impact in his first season at UNC as the Tar Heels had the nation's most improved Power 5 defense, allowing 14.5 points fewer than the previous year. UNC also had the most improved pass defense in the country in both efficiency and yards per pass attempt, and was the fifth most improved team in passing yards per game. Carolina led the ACC in interceptions, turnovers gained, turnover margin and passes defended en route to a record-setting 11-3 season, a berth in the ACC Championship Game and a No. 15 final ranking in both national polls. The Tar Heels finished No. 12 in pass defense efficiency.

Before coming to UNC, Papuchis served on Nebraska's staff from 2008-14, including the last three as the Huskers' defensive coordinator. Papuchis was the fourth-youngest defensive coordinator in the country and the youngest solo defensive coordinator when he was promoted to the position at Nebraska in 2012.

Nebraska's defense ranked highly in Papuchis' seven seasons in Lincoln. The Blackshirts held opponents to 10 or fewer points in nearly one-quarter of the games he coached. In addition to holding 22 opponents to 10 or fewer points, NU also held 34 opponents to 14 points or fewer. In three seasons with Papuchis coordinating the defense, Nebraska held its opponent to 14 or fewer points 11 times.

Before being promoted to NU's defensive coordinator, Papuchis worked with a Husker defense that led the nation in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense in 2009. Nebraska ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense twice in Papuchis' seven seasons and once in total defense.

In his last 12 seasons as a defensive assistant, Papuchis has coached four units that have ranked in the top 10 in scoring defense and total defense. A pair of Huskers - Ndamukong Suh and Prince Amukamara - are among six Papuchis players who have been drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft since 2007.

Working with the Husker defensive line, Papuchis helped Suh become a Heisman Trophy Finalist, in addition to winning the Outland Trophy, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Lombardi Award and the Bednarik Award.

In addition to working with the Husker defense, Papuchis also coordinated Nebraska's special teams for four seasons from 2008 to 2011. In 2010, Papuchis was one of four finalists for the FootballScoop Special Teams Coordinator-of-theYear Award.

Papuchis joined the Nebraska coaching staff after spending the previous four seasons on the football staff at LSU. out his time with LSU.

JOKER PHILLIPS

Co-Offensive Coordinator/Wide Receivers

Kentucky '86 • First Year at Maryland

Joe "Joker" Phillips, a 30-year veteran of the collegiate and NFL ranks, joined the University of Maryland football staff in 2019 as Co-Offensive Coordinator/Wide Receivers Coach.

Phillips, a former head coach at the University of Kentucky, has extensive experience coaching receivers, with stops at Cincinnati, Minnesota, Notre Dame, South Carolina, Florida and in the NFL.

After spending the 2016 season as an offensive quality control coach at Ohio State, Phillips began his second stint at Cincinnati in 2017. He also coached the Bearcats wide receivers in 1997 and the Cincy defensive backs in 1998.

Just two years after joining the Cincinnati staff for the second time, Phillips helped the Bearcats to an 11-2 record and a win over Virginia Tech in the 2018 Military Bowl. Under Philips' tutelage, wide receiver Kahlil Lewis ranked seventh in the American Athletic by averaging 4.3 receptions per game for 782 yards and nine touchdowns.

Phillips spent the 2015 season as the wide receiver's coach for the Cleveland Browns and has developed 11 wide receivers into NFL draft picks, including Troy Williamson (first round), Randall Cobb (second round), Steve Johnson (seventh round) and David Givens (seventh round).

He served as the wide receiver's coach and recruiting coordinator at Florida in 2013 following three seasons (2010-12) as the head coach at Kentucky. He became the first coach in Kentucky history to lead the team to a bowl game in his first season (BBVA Compass Bowl), and he won more games than any first-year UK coach since Blanton Collier in 1954.

A Kentucky grad, Phillips spent 19 years coaching at the school between two stints (1989-98 and 2003-12). He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at UK in 1988 and spent 13 seasons coaching the school's wide receivers, including adding offensive coordinator and head coach of the offense responsibilities. As offensive coordinator in 2007, he guided Kentucky's offense to a school record 475 points. That season he also helped the Wildcats defeat No. 1 LSU, 43-37.

Phillips has also had stints at Minnesota (1999-2000), Notre Dame (2001) and South Carolina (2002).

At Cincinnati in 1997, Phillips coached standout wide receiver Chad Plummer, who helped lead the Bearcats to their first bowl win since 1951 in the 1997 Humanitarian Bowl. Plummer was later selected by the Denver Broncos in the sixth round of the 1999 NFL Draft.

At Minnesota, Phillips guided All-Big Ten wide receiver Ron Johnson, who went on to play for the NFL's Baltimore Ravens. In his year at Notre Dame, Phillips placed two wideouts in the NFL, Javin Hunter and David Givens.

Phillips returned to UK from South Carolina, where he coached the wide receivers under head coach Lou Holtz in 2002. Gamecocks newcomer Troy Williamson earned SEC All-Freshman honors that year and went on to become the No. 7 pick in the first round of the 2005 NFL Draft.

In addition to his coaching, Phillips also is known as a highly effective recruiter. He has been identified as one of the nation's top recruiters by SI.com and Rivals.com.

As a wide receiver at Kentucky, Phillips finished his career fifth on the school receiving list with 75 receptions for 935 yards and nine touchdowns. He played two seasons in the NFL with Washington (1985 and 1987) and spent one year (1986) with the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League. He earned his bachelor's degree in advertising from UK in 1986.

Phillips participated in football, basketball and track at Franklin-Simpson High School. He was an all-state selection in football, playing quarterback and cornerback, and was an all-region selection in basketball.

Born Joe Phillips Jr., the native of Franklin, Kentucky, was nicknamed Joker as a baby by his grandfather to help distinguish Joker from his father, Joe Sr.

JOHN REAGAN

Offensive Line

Syracuse '94 • First Year at Maryland

A veteran coach with 25 years of experience, John Reagan joined the Maryland football coaching staff as the offensive line coach in January 2019.

At Reagan's last three stops - Penn (2015-18), Kansas (2014) and Rice (2011-13) – he served as the offensive coordinator.

Reagan was at the forefront of a resurgent offensive attack at Penn, guiding the Red and Blue's offense to record-setting heights and a pair of Ivy League championships. In 2017, Penn's total offense ranked No. 31 in the nation, averaging 413.9 yards per game. Regan's offense was dangerous on the ground, featuring two All-Ivy running backs and the nation's No. 20 rushing attack (199.5 yards per game).

During Reagan's four years at Penn, the Quakers won two Ivy League Championships (2015, 2016) and 28 players earned all-league recognition.

Reagan spent the 2014 season as offensive coordinator at Kansas and the previous four years at Rice, including the last three as offensive coordinator. In his three seasons at the helm of the Owls offense, Reagan led two of the three most productive offensive seasons in school history, which included a win in the 2012 Armed Forces Bowl, a 2013 Conference USA championship, and an appearance in the 2013 Liberty Bowl.

In 2012, the Owls produced the second-most productive offensive season in school history, piling up 5,556 yards, 414 points and 306 first downs on their way to winning the last five games, including the Armed Forces Bowl. The Owls also set a school record and led the nation by averaging 33:59 in time of possession.

Reagan joined the Owls in 2010 and served as run game coordinator, tight ends coach and assisted with the offensive line before he was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2011.

Prior to joining the Owls, Reagan spent five seasons at Kansas as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator. Under his direction, KU posted a better rushing average in each of the first four seasons, including running for 188.8 yards per game in 2007.

In 2008, Reagan molded an offensive line which featured two redshirt freshmen starters at the tackle spots who went on to earn freshman All-America honors (Jeremiah Hatch and Jeff Spikes). Under Reagan's direction, offensive tackle Anthony Collins developed into a 2007 All-America selection and was one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy, given annually to the best interior lineman in college football. Collins went on to be selected in the fourth round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

The 2006 season was also an extremely successful campaign, due in part to the exploits Reagan's unit accomplished. Jon Cornish set a new Kansas single-season rushing record with 1,427 yards following the KU line, and Reagan saw center David Ochoa earn All-Big 12 Second Team honors.

In 2005, Reagan helped execute KU's rushing offense which ended the season averaging 134 yards per game and nearly four yards per carry. The year before his arrival, the Jayhawks averaged just 94.0 yards per game and less than three yards per carry. Reagan had two offensive linemen -- David Ochoa and Bob Whitaker -- earn All-Big 12 honors during his first year at KU.

Reagan, who spent the 2003-04 seasons as the offensive line coach at the U.S. Air Force Academy and assisted with several special teams units, was also a member of the Temple coaching staff for three years. He directed the defensive line at Temple for two seasons before his switch to the opposite side of the ball.

Reagan joined the Temple coaching staff in February 2000 after instructing the Akron defensive line in 1999. Before coaching at Akron, Reagan was the tight ends coach and offensive tackle coach at Army in 1998. In 1997, he came to Penn after serving as an offensive graduate assistant at Oklahoma State. He began his coaching career in 1994 as the assistant offensive line and fullback coach at Albany, where he remained until moving to Stillwater in 1996.

A native of Delmar, N.Y., Reagan was a standout center at Bethlehem High School and was inducted into the Capital Region Football Hall of Fame in upstate New York in 2012.

He was a three-year starter at Syracuse, graduating in 1994 with a dual major in exercise science and sport psychology. As a senior captain in 1993, Reagan earned the Ben Schwartzwalder Most Exemplary Football Player Award after leading his team to a 26-22 victory over Colorado in the Fiesta Bowl. While with the Orangemen, he also competed in the 1992 Hall of Fame Bowl when Syracuse defeated Ohio State, 24-17. Reagan was twice named to the GTE Academic All-America team (1992-93) and was presented with the Toyota Leadership Award following his senior season.

Reagan has a daughter, Kaitlyn and a son, Daniel.

CORY ROBINSON

Defensive Passing Game Coordinator
Cornerbacks
Central Connecticut State '09 • First Year at Maryland

Cory Robinson returns to Maryland, joining Michael Locksley's staff as the defensive passing game coordinator/defensive backs coach in January 2019. Robinson also served as director of player personnel at Maryland in 2015.

Robinson most recently coached at Rutgers, where he was cornerbacks coach and passing game coordinator in 2018.

After his first stint in College Park, Robinson coached cornerbacks at Toledo (2016) and Temple (2017).

Robinson helped guide Temple to a first-place American Athletic Conference ranking in passing defense as the Owls allowed only 206.8 yards per game through the air during his lone season on the sideline.

Prior to his stint at Temple, Robinson served as cornerbacks coach at Toledo during the 2016 season. The Rockets went 9-3 and finished runner up for the MAC conference title. While at Toledo, the pass defense limited opponents to 220.0 passing yards per game.

Robinson, a Baltimore native, began his coaching career in the high school ranks with stops at Calvert Hall College (2009-13) and St. Frances Academy (2014). Robinson is known as a strong recruiter in the Baltimore area.

A 2009 graduate of Central Connecticut State, Robinson earned a degree in communications and a minor in business/marketing. He was a starting cornerback for the Blue Devils.

Robinson and his wife Candy have four sons, Rahshaun, Denali, Royal and Legend.

BRIAN WILLIAMS

Outside Linebackers
Florida A&M • First Year at Maryland

Brian Williams joined the Terps staff as the outside linebackers coach in February 2019. Williams comes to College Park after three years at UAB and time at the University of Georgia and Florida State University.

Williams helped lead UAB to a Conference USA Championship and the program's first ever 11-win season in 2018 under Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Bill Clark.

Under Williams guidance, redshirt senior Chris Woolbright earned all-conference honors after leading the Blazers with 83 tackles and two interceptions while tallying 13.5 tackles for loss.

In 2017, Williams helped lead the Blazers to a successful campaign which was highlighted by the development of senior Tevin Crews.

Crews stayed at UAB during the program's two-year hiatus and once he was back on the field, Williams coached him to career numbers and All-Conference USA accolades.

Crews was the only player in Conference USA to rank in the top 10 in both tackles per game (7.8) and tackles for loss (12.0). He finished the season with a career-high and team-best 102 tackles to go along with his 12 TFLs, three sacks, three pass breakups, one interception and one forced fumble.

Williams also developed sophomore Fitzgerald Mofor into one of UAB's most consistent players as Mofor started all 13 games for the Blazers and finished third on the team with 71 tackles. Meanwhile, true freshman Thomas Johnston gained valuable experience in playing all 13 games and finishing the season with 32 tackles.

Overall, Williams helped UAB return from a two-year hiatus in 2017 to set the program record for FBS wins (8), Conference USA wins (6) and finished with a perfect 6-0 record at home for the first time ever. The Blazers' appearance in the Bahamas Bowl was just the second bowl game in program history.

Although 2017 was Williams' first year coaching games at UAB, he joined the Blazers coaching staff in January of 2016 to help bring the program back.

Prior to UAB, Williams was at the University of Georgia in 2015 as the player relations director for the Bulldogs' defense. Before that, he was on staff at Florida State for two years as a defensive analyst and was a part of the Seminoles' 29-game winning streak which included winning the 2013 National Championship.

The Florida State defense finished the 2013 season allowing just 12.1 points against, anchored by linebackers Telvin Smith and Reggie Northrup. Smith led the team with 90 tackles and 9.5 TFL. Williams contributed to FSU's defense that ranked second in total defense, first in passing defense and third in rushing defense.

Williams had a very successful high school coaching career before jumping to the collegiate level. His first coaching stop was at Rickards High School in Tallahassee. He then returned to his alma mater of Miami Carol City High School where he spent seven years coaching football and teaching math and special education.

After one year in Georgia, Williams moved back to Tallahassee to begin a three-year stint at Godby High School as the Defensive Coordinator. Williams helped Godby win the Florida state title in 2012 as the Cougars finished with an overall record of 15-1.

Maryland 34, #23 Texas 29

LANDOVER, Md. - Maryland emerged from a trying offseason with an emotionally charged 34-29 upset of No. 23 Texas on Saturday, shaking off a lengthy weather delay to provide Matt Canada a satisfying victory in his debut at the Terrapins' interim coach.

After blowing a 24-7 lead, Maryland forced three turnovers in the final 6:09 and scored the game's final 10 points to stun the Longhorns in the opener for the second year in a row. This one was even more impressive because of what the Terrapins endured this summer.

Maryland has dedicated its season to offensive lineman Jordan McNair. The Terrapins paid tribute to McNair by lining up with 10 players on their first offensive play of the game. Maryland waited for a delay of game to be called, and Texas declined the penalty in a show of sportsmanship.

Freshman Jeshaun Jones ran for a score, threw for one and caught a 65-yard TD pass. Quarterback Kasim Hill went 17 for 29 for 222 yards.

Texas took its first lead in the third quarter after Canada opted to keep his offense on the field for a fourth-and-1 from the Maryland 36. Hill was stuffed for no gain, and the Longhorns reached the end zone in four plays to make it 29-24.

After Hill directed a 79-yard drive that put the Terps back in front with 14:25 remaining, a potential thunderstorm caused a delay of 86 minutes.

Texas committed three turnovers following the stoppage.

The game began with teams putting up 21 points in just over seven minutes. Jones opened with a 28-yard touchdown run, Longhorns junior Devin Duvernay caught a 39-yard pass in the end zone and Jones followed with a TD catch.

Maryland 45, Bowling Green 14

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio. - Tayon Fleet-Davis rushed for 102 yards and two touchdowns, and Ty Johnson had 124 yards and another score as Maryland broke out in the second half and beat Bowling Green 45-14 on Saturday.

With Bowling Green leading 14-10 at halftime, Maryland (2-0) ripped off 35 unanswered points in the second half to cruise to the easy win.

Maryland overcame 14 penalties for 139 yards.

Maryland piled up 565 yards in total offense but didn't take the lead until there was 4:31 left in the third quarter. The Terps defense held Bowling Green to 158 total yards, including just 15 rushing and sacked quarterback Jarret Doege five times.

"They physically kicked our tails on both sides of the ball, up front offensively and defensively," Bowling Green coach Mike Jinks said.

The Terps, who upset Texas last week, took a 17-14 lead on a third-and-22 play when Jahrvis Davenport caught Kasim Hill's pass, broke several tackles and worked his way down the right sideline for the 22-yard touchdown. They put the game away with four rushing touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

"We had great determination to finish the game." Maryland coach Matt Canada said. "We were down 14-10 at the half for a multitude of reasons. We were shooting ourselves in the foot with the penalties. We came back and ran the football well."

Maryland finished the game with 444 rushing yards, which was the most for the program since totaling 445 against Virginia in 1999. Bowling Green was held to just 15 yards on the ground.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Despite recording defensive and special team touchdowns, Maryland (2-1) dropped a 35-14 decision to Temple (1-2) in the Terrapins' 2018 home opener Saturday afternoon at Capital One Field at Maryland Stadium.

Redshirt freshman running back Anthony McFarland rushed for a career-high 107 yards on 11 carries, while junior wide receiver DJ Turner hauled in four receptions, one shy of his career best.

Temple's Anthony Russo threw for 228 yards, while Ryquell Armstead rushed for 118 yards to pace the Owls.

Senior Darnell Savage, Jr. had a 23-yard interception return for a touchdown for Maryland's lone score of the first half.

Senior Jesse Aniebonam blocked a punt and returned it for a touchdown to pull the Terps to within 28-14, but Temple's Shaun Bradley returned an interception 78 yards for a touchdown with 4:11 left to seal the Owls victory.

Maryland 42, Minnesota 13

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Freshman Anthony McFarland ran for 112 yards and two touchdowns, Tre Watson returned an interception for a score and Maryland breezed past previously undefeated Minnesota 42-13 Saturday.

Ty Johnson had an 81-yard TD run for the Terrapins (3-1, 1-0 Big Ten), who looked nothing like the team that lost badly to Temple last week.

"The players played really good," interim coach Matt Canada said. "I got out of the way."

Minnesota (3-1, 0-1), without a doubt, hardly resembled the squad that had bullied three straight nonconference foes at home.

After taking the blame for the loss to Temple, Canada deployed an offense against Minnesota that rolled up 432 yards.

Effectively mixing the pass and run, Maryland led 14-0 after 11 minutes, increased the margin to 18 points shortly after halftime and took a 35-13 lead into the fourth quarter.

Quarterback Kasim Hill went 10-14 for 117 yards and a TD.

Watson's 36-yard interception return made it 28-10, and a 64-yard touchdown run by McFarland later in the quarter essentially clinched it.

The Terrapins outgained the Gophers 288-109 in yardage and led 21-10 at halftime.

Maryland showed immediately that this game was going to be different than the last one, passing on the opening play and putting the ball in the air three times during its initial possession. Hill went 3 for 3 and ran for 2 yards on a fourth-and-2 during a march that ended with a 26-yard touchdown run by McFarland.

Johnson's 81-yard run made it 14-0.

#15 Michigan 42, Maryland 21

ANN ARBOR, Mich. - Despite a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown from senior Ty Johnson, Maryland (3-2, 1-1 B1G) fell, 42-21, against No. 15 Michigan (5-1, 3-0 B1G) at Michigan Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

After a lightning delay forced the start of the game back just over an hour, Michigan got on the board with a field goal late in the first quarter.

On the ensuing kickoff, Johnson gave the Terps a 7-3 lead with his second career kickoff return for touchdown. Johnson had a 100-yard kickoff return TD at Ohio State in 2017.

Johnson is quickly approaching 4,000 career all-purpose yards. After today, he sits at 3,935 career all-purpose yards. He'd become just the fourth Terp to ever accomplish that feat, joining Torrey Smith (5,264), LaMont Jordan (4,960) and Stefon Diggs (4,106).

Michigan, which won its fifth straight game, scored twice each in the second and third quarters to take a 27-7 lead.

The Terps used a 15-play, 75-yard drive that was capped by a Javon Leake touchdown run to pull to within 27-14, but Maryland would get no closer.

Tyrrell Pigrome capped the Maryland scoring with a five-yard touchdown run late in the game.

Pigrome and Tayon Fleet-Davis each rushed for 63 yards as the Terps totaled 147 yards on the ground against the nation's No. 1 defense.

Tre Watson paced the Terps with 10 tackles, while senior Darnell Savage, Jr. grabbed his second interception of the year to pace the Maryland defense.

GAME 6

Oct. 13, 2018

Maryland 34, Rutgers 7

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Kasim Hill threw three touchdown passes, Ty Johnson ran for 132 yards and Maryland had five interceptions against woeful Rutgers in a 34-7 victory Saturday.

The Terrapins (4-2, 2-1 Big Ten) led 24-0 at halftime and cruised to the finish. A Rutgers touchdown with 43 seconds remaining ended Maryland's bid for its first shutout since a 37-0 win over West Virginia on Sept. 21, 2013.

Rutgers (1-6, 0-4) lost its sixth straight. Freshman quarterback Artur Sitkowski was pulled late in the third quarter after going 2 for 16 for 8 yards and four interceptions.

Johnson's 65-yard touchdown run in the first quarter started the onslaught, and Hill added a pair of touchdown throws in the second quarter.

The five interceptions were Maryland's most since a seven-pick performance against Duke in 1998.

The Scarlet Knights had only four first downs and 41 yards over the first half. In the third quarter, Maryland used a field goal and Hill's 8-yard TD pass to Jeshaun Jones to make it 34-0.

Earlier in the week, Terrapins interim coach and offensive coordinator Matt Canada bristled at the suggestion that the team relied too much on the run. Though Hill (8 for 17, 76 yards) and backup Tyrrell Pigrome (1 for 3, 9 yards) didn't put up gaudy numbers, the three TD passes served as proof that Maryland can score through the air.

The running game, however, remains the team's strength -- and Johnson is the best of the lot. The senior ranks fourth in school history in yards rushing (2,564) and all-purpose yardage (4,081).

#18 Iowa 23, Maryland 0

IOWA CITY - Maryland (4-3, 2-2 Big Ten) fell to No. 19 Iowa (6-1, 3-1 Big Ten), 23-0, on a windy Saturday at Kinnick Stadium.

Facing their third ranked foe of the season and second in the past three weeks, the Terps could only compile 115 total yards of offense. The Hawkeyes rushed for 224 yards and held the ball for nearly 41 minutes.

Ty Johnson totaled 59 all-purpose yards in the game, moving him passed Stefon Diggs into third all-time at Maryland in career all-purpose yards.

Tre Watson put forth another strong game, hauling in his fourth interception of the season, tying him for the second most picks in a season by a linebacker in school history.

Watson also posted double digit tackles for the fifth straight game, leading the Terps with 15. Isaiah Davis (14), Adam McLean (7) and Byron Cowart (7) all set new career highs in tackles.

With Watson's pick, Maryland now has 13 on the season, the most interceptions for a Terps team since 2010 (19).

GAME 8

Oct. 27, 2018

Maryland 63, Illinois 33

COLLEGE PARK - Javon Leake rushed for three touchdowns and scored on a 97-yard kickoff return, Kasim Hill had the best passing game of his career and Maryland rolled past Illinois 63-33 on Saturday.

Leake is the first Maryland player to score four TDs in a game since D.J. Adams in the 2010 Military Bowl. Leake, a sophomore, finished wih 140 yards rushing, including scores of 64, 27 and 43 yards.

The victory left the Terrapins (5-3, 3-2 Big Ten), one win short of becoming bowl eligible.

Reggie Corbin ran for 155 yards and a touchdown for the Fighting Illini (3-5, 1-4). Illinois had yielded 158 points during a three-game skid, and its streak of forcing a turnover in 21 consecutive games came to an end.

Leake's kickoff return and 64-yard run, along with two touchdown passes by Hill, provided Maryland with a 28-9 halftime lead. The Terrapins tacked on three touchdowns in the third quarter, including a 27-yard run by Leake and Hill's third touchdown pass.

Hill was removed from the game late in the third quarter with the score 49-19. He went 11 for 19 for a career-high 265 yards, and his three TD passes tied a career best.

Playing Illinois for the first time, Maryland set a schohol record for most points in a Big Ten game since joining the conference. The Terps finished with 712 yards in offense.

Michigan State 24, Maryland 3

COLLEGE PARK - Michigan State topped Maryland, 24-3, Saturday afternoon at Capital One Field at Maryland Stadium.

With the loss, Maryland falls to 5-4 overall and 3-3 in Big Ten play.

Michigan State (6-3, 4-2 B1G) was led by Connor Heyward's pair of touchdown runs.

Freshman kicker Joseph Petrino connected on a 23-yard field goal for the Terps' lone score.

Tre Watson led the Terps with 13 tackles. He's posted double figure tackles in six of his last seven games.

RaVon Davis and Byron Cowart each had an interception for the Terps defense, which now has 16 on the year, the most for a Maryland defense since 2002 (18).

The Terps are back in action next Saturday at Indiana.

Indiana 34, Maryland 32

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. –Redshirt freshman running back Anthony McFarland rushed for a Maryland freshman record 210 yards on 29 carries, but the Maryland football team fell, 34-32, at Memorial Stadium Saturday afternoon.

After going up 6-0 in the first quarter, the Terrapins (5-5, 3-4 Big Ten) were outscored 31-9 and at one point trailed 31-15 in the third quarter. After 17 unanswered Maryland points gave the Terps the lead late in the fourth quarter, Indiana hit a field goal that turned out to be the game winner with 2:32 to go in the game.

McFarland's 210 yards was a career high and the most for a Maryland player since senior Ty Johnson ran for 204 yards against Purdue in 2016. The Hyattsville, Md., native also broke LaMont Jordan's single season freshman rushing record and now has 724 yards for the season.

Sophomore Tyrell Pirgrome threw for 146 yards on 10-for-13 passing with a touchdown in relief of Kasim Hill, who sustained an injury in the third quarter. Freshman Jeshaun Jones caught six balls, a career high, for 67 yards and a score while Dontay Demus notched a career high with 98 receiving yards.

Senior Tre Watson led the defense with seven total tackles and notched his fifth interception of season, which is tied for the most by a linebacker in Maryland history. The Terps now have 17 picks on the year after leading the country in that category entering the weekend.

Maryland returns to action next Saturday on Senior Day at Maryland Stadium against Ohio State.

Maryland 51, #9 Ohio State 52 (OT)

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - A 1-yard TD run in overtime by Tayon Fleet-Davis pulled Maryland to within a point of No. 9 Ohio State, but a failed 2-point conversion ended the Terps' upset bid, 52-51, at Capital One Field at Maryland Stadium Saturday afternoon.

Redshirt freshman Anthony McFarland rushed for 298 yards, the second-most rushing yards in a single game in Maryland football history (Lamont Jordan, 306 yards) and two touchdowns to lead the Terrapin effort. McFarland, who had touchdown runs of 81 and 75 yards in the first quarter, became the first freshman to go over 1,000 yards in a season in program history.

Up 24-17 at halftime, the Terrapins garnered further momentum on Ohio State's first drive of the second half when RaVon Davis picked off a deflected pass and took it 37 yards for a score.

The Buckeyes answered with a 73-yard scoring drive. After Ohio State pulled even in the fourth quarter, Maryland moved back in front on a 27-yard touchdown pass by Pigrome, who was making his first start of the season after Kasim Hill sustained a season-ending knee injury last week.

The Terps conclude the regular season next Saturday at No. 16 Penn State. The game is set for a 3:30 p.m. kick and will air on ABC.

No. 12 Penn State 38, Maryland 3

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. -- Maryland (5-7, 3-6 Big Ten) dropped its regular season finale at No. 15 Penn State (9-3, 6-3 Big Ten), 38-3, on Saturday afternoon.

This was the fifth ranked opponent Maryland has faced this season and the third on the road. Maryland compiled 259 yards of offense on 185 passing and 74 rushing, led by a career-best 58 receiving yards on two receptions from freshman wide receiver Brian Cobbs.

Down 7-0, Maryland drove 52 yards on seven plays, led by a 48-yard reception by Cobbs to put the Terps in field goal range. Freshman kicker Joseph Petrino cashed in on his 12th field goal of the season to put the Terps on the board.

Trace McSorley paced Penn State's offense with 230 passing yards and 64 rushing yards, while accounting for three touchdowns.

Isaiah Davis led the Terps defense with nine tackles. Antwaine Richardson recovered a fumble and had two pass break-ups.
